GERMAN MONEY FOR RUSSIA.

Berlin, Nov. 26.—While the Czar was at Potsdam recently the general lines of a prospective commercial treaty between Germany and Russia were reached. Emperor William, the Czar, Dr. von Miquel and M. de Witte discussed the situation, including the financial crisis in Russia.

The latter was largely due to the numerous industrial enterprises, especially in iron started under the Russian high tariff policy, being obliged to curtail their output owing to insufficient coal supplies from the South Russia mines. When the workshops closed for lack of coal prices rose enormously, and the Minister of Finance, M. de Witte, therefore arbitrarily fixed the price of railroad materials required by the railroads at about 50 per cent below the price demanded. As many enterprises were started expressly to supply the Siberian railroad, the result was disastrous.

The German and Russian governments take a grave view of the situation, but in Berlin financial circles the crisis is regarded as only temporary. Therefore, in view of the Czar's emphatic declaration at Potsdam in favor of M. de Witte's peace policy, and the believed baseness of the reports of the Russian advance in Afghanistan and Persia, they are inclined to further Russia's financial and industrial expansion on the ground that they will thus be subscribing to their own interests in drawing apart Russia and France and in heightening Russia's power of purchasing German products.

Oil on the Waters.

Sailing vessels are arriving in port with tales of storms, gales and mountainous seas encountered on the way from San Francisco. The W. H. Diamond had a particularly hard time of it, the captain being compelled to pour oil on the water at various times. This had the effect of quieting the waters to such an extent that no more seas broke over the vessel and she rode more easily. The W. H. Diamond left San Francisco November 8th. She brought 38 head of stock which, thanks to the captain's foresight, arrived in good condition.

You have every reason to expect that it will do for you what it has done for others. It is the best medicine money can buy. Hood's Pills are non-irritating, mild, effective.
